Subject: Nomination of David Sheridan

Dear Chairman McDonald,

I was very pleased to learn about David Sheridan's nomination to the bench. I support his nomination as enthusiastically as I have ever supported anyone for anything.

I practiced for over 15 years with Dave at Levy & Droney. He is a skilled litigator, which, of course, will serve him well on the bench. However, Dave's traits which best suit him for the bench are his unfailing humanity and decency. In the arena of private practice where economic consequences tend to dictate the course of action, Dave could be counted on to do and say the right thing. He was frequently the voice of reason.

Dave possesses the other traits cited in outstanding judges. He is hardworking, thoughtful, and has an even temperament. He has a breadth of real world experience.

If I was a litigant and was told my matter was coming before him I know I could count on my matter receiving full consideration and a fair decision. Connecticut would be well served with Dave Sheridan as a judge.

Very truly yours,

Joseph A. Vitale
